

SAVIOR MAGAZINE:

Our work at Savior is created by you so if you are an illustrator, photographer, clothing designer, jewelry designer, accessories designer, model or a photographer - send us a link to your online portfolio and a description about you and how you want to be in the next issue of Savior magazine to our email at info@saviormag.com.

FYI:

Photographers please understand that each issue of Savior has a different aesthetic / theme. We ask all chosen photographers to create their project with Savior magazine to create our desired look for that current issue. - Savior must approve models, hair and MUA artist. Please note that once a project theme is established photographers will be asked to send three rough drafts of their photo editorial to info@saviormag.com for revisions. All drafts and final work must be submitted by their due date or will be ineligible for submission.

Clothing, Jewelry and Accessories designers interested in being featured in an issue of Savior must submit line-sheets and / or look-book of their current collection to info@saviormag.com.

Savior accepts independent models and models represented by an agency. All candidates should submit proper headshots and stats to info@saviormag.com.

Savior magazine is based in Des Moines Iowa, but accepts work from any living space on the globe. We do not pay for travel and / or content.
